- II. Expected number of vacancies for admission, prolongation accommodation, time and price of the accommodation
- III. Application for admission, application for prolongation of accommodation, address and deadline for submission and appendices
- IV. Informing students

I. CONDITIONS AND MEASURES FOR ACCOMMODATION

ADMISSION:

1. Conditions

Early stage researchers (employed doctoral students who have a status of an early stage researcher) and fellowship recipients (third stage post-graduate students who do not have Slovenian citizenship and do not have an early stage researcher status, but are receiving a fellowship granted in the Republic of Slovenia), shall fulfil the following conditions in order to reside at Študentski dom Ljubljana Public Institute (hereinafter ŠDL):

- They have a status of a student and are taking doctoral courses and are not employed or seeking employment,
- Early stage researchers, citizens of the Republic of Slovenia, shall have their permanent address, from which they come to the location of their studies, at least 25 km away from the location of their studies,
- The study programme is carried out in Ljubljana or a location that is no more than 25 km away from Ljubljana.

The condition referred to in item one of the previous paragraph regarding non-employment shall not apply to early stage researchers.

In special cases early stage researchers, citizens of the Republic of Slovenia whose permanent address is less than 25 km away from the location of their studies, may reside in ŠDL, namely:

- they have at least 4 km to the nearest public transportation station
- they are in especially difficult social and medical circumstances.

2. Value of measures for accommodation in ŠDL for early stage researchers and fellowship recipients is the maximum of 100 points.

The value of an individual measure is:

- 2.1. academic success: a maximum of 60 points,
- 2.2. outstanding achievement and extracurricular activities: a maximum of 8 points,
- 2.3. distance from the permanent residence to the location of the studies: a maximum of 15 points,
- 2.4. special social, medical circumstances of the student and other: a maximum of 10 points,
- 2.5. additional ranking rules: a maximum of 7 points.

Fellowship students cannot receive points from measure under item 2.3.

Ad 2.1. Taking into consideration the grade point average the academic success shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Number of points} = (\text{grade point average} - 6) * 15$$

In first year doctoral students the grade point average, rounded to two decimals, shall be calculated as a mean value of all obligations of the last concluded study programme that was graded with grades from 1 to 10 or with an appropriate conversion into these grades.

In students in later grades of their doctoral studies the grade point average, rounded to two decimals, shall be calculated as a mean value of all obligations they passed in previous years of their doctoral studies that were graded with grades from 1 to 10 or with an appropriate conversion into these grades.

Ad 2.2. A maximum of 8 points may be granted for outstanding achievement and extracurricular activities, namely:

- for a national, university or foreign award - 5 points,
- for penning and publishing an article, discussion or another contribution for a domestic or foreign professional magazine, publication, journal, textbook - 5 points,
- attending expert seminars, science symposiums or international conferences with an independent contribution or achievement, product, service or creation, an award from the economy - 5 points,
- an award from the faculty or a regional award, attending professional seminars, science symposiums, conferences or other types of professional attendance on the national level - 3 points.

Points may be added; one can achieve the maximum of 8 points.

Ad 2.3. Distance from the permanent residence from which early stage researchers with their permanent residence in the Republic of Slovenia come to the location of their study to the location of their study is graded so that a maximum of 15 points may be gathered and is calculated in accordance with the following formula:

Number of points, rounded to two decimals = distance in km /13

For calculating the distance from the location of the study in km distance metre: »zemljevid.najdi.si« map of the Najdi.si portal of TSMedia d.o.o. is used.

Ad 2. 4. Special social, medical circumstances of early stage researchers and fellowship recipients and other (such as natural disasters and other accidents, long-lasting severe illness in the family, pregnancy) shall be graded to that a maximum of 10 points may be awarded.

If an early stage researcher or fellowship recipient provides evidence by competent organizations or bodies (social services, doctor specialist, disability committee, administration body) regarding their difficult social circumstance or medical condition (at least 80% disabled, a patient with a severe illness, difficult social circumstances), and such evidence is not older than three months, he/she shall be granted an additional 5 points after individually reviewing his/her case.

Early stage researcher or fellowship recipient – mother or father who will have a child with them during their studies, shall be added another 5 points. The child shall be younger than six years or of school age.

Ad 2. 5. Additional ranking rules shall be graded so that a maximum of 7 points may be gathered.

Early stage researchers, Slovenians with permanent residence outside of the Republic of Slovenia, who have a status of a Slovenian in accordance with provisions of the applicable law governing relations between the Republic of Slovenia with Slovenians outside of its borders and fellowship recipients shall be awarded 7 points.

Early stage researchers or fellowship recipients who are children of people who died in the war for Slovenian and victims of natural disasters who are not over 27 years of age when they first apply for admission into ŠDL shall be awarded 7 points.

PROLONGATION:

Early stage researchers (employed students of doctoral students with an early stage researcher status) and fellowship recipients (doctoral students who do not have citizenship of the Republic of Slovenia and do not have an early stage researcher status, however, they receive a grant awarded in the Republic of Slovenia) shall fulfil the following conditions in order to prolong their accommodation in Študentski dom Ljubljana Public Institute (hereinafter ŠDL):

- they shall have a student and early stage researcher status or
- they shall have a student status and receive fellowship granted in the Republic of Slovenia and they are not employed or job seekers.

IV. INFORMING STUDENTS

1. Additional information regarding the tender are available at (01) 580 5601 and at the ŠDL website <http://www.stud-dom-lj.si/>, under Dom podiplomcev.
2. The Committee for Admission of accommodation appointed by the Council of the Študentski dom Ljubljana Institute shall decide on the admission of early stage researchers and fellowship recipients into ŠDL.

Based on complete applications that arrived on time the Committee for Admission of accommodation shall find whether an early stage researcher or fellowship recipient meets the criteria for admission into ŠDL. It is expected that on 5th November 2015 the committee shall, pursuant to measures for accommodation in ŠDL, issue a Decision in which it shall determine the number of points an individual early stage researcher or fellowship recipient gathered and shall place him/her onto the priority list. Students who receive the same number of points shall be ranked on the list so that the measures 2.3, 2.4 and 2.1 of item I. of this chapter of the tender in accordance with the value of measures for accommodation of early stage researchers and fellowship recipients, the maximum of which is 100 points, are taken into account in the above stated order.

If more early stage researchers or fellowship recipients achieve the same amount of points, the distance from the place of residence from which they come to the place of study to the place of study referred to in item 2.3 of chapter I of this tender and the grade point average referred to in item 2.1 of chapter I of this tender shall be additionally taken into consideration when ranking students.

Within three days of the decision on the priority list, the list shall be published on the notice board of the Študentski dom Ljubljana Public Institute and at Študentski dom Ljubljana website www.stud-dom-lj.si

The students shall be informed of the fact whether they meet the criteria for accommodation in ŠDL via mail at the address of their residence in the Republic of Slovenia no later than until 7th November 2015.

3. The Committee for Admission of accommodation in ŠDL appointed by the Council of Študentski dom Ljubljana shall decide on prolongation of accommodation of early stage researchers and fellowship recipients in ŠDL.

The Committee for Admission of accommodation shall, based on complete applications which arrived on time, find whether an early stage researcher or fellowship recipient fulfils the conditions for prolongation of accommodation in ŠDL and shall issue a decision to that effect.
